Tour Info
18-Sep-25	Xian, Terracotta Warriors Discover the Terracotta Warriors and Journey to Shanghai Begin your day with a visit to the awe-inspiring Terracotta Warriors and Horses Museum, one of the most significant archaeological discoveries of the 20th century. This vast site showcases the life-size terracotta army of Qin Shi Huang, China's first emperor. Marvel at the intricate details of the soldiers, horses, chariots, and weapons, each uniquely crafted to guard the emperor in the afterlife. Explore the history and culture of the Qin dynasty and gain a deeper appreciation for the enduring legacy of this UNESCO World Heritage Site. Before departing Xi'an, stop at a jade carving store, where you can learn about this cherished Chinese art form and its cultural significance. Finally, board your flight to Shanghai. Upon arrival, you'll be warmly greeted and transferred to your hotel, ready to explore the vibrant city ahead.
18-Sep-25	Xi'an - Beijing , High-speed train
19-Sep-25	Beijing, Forbidden City & Tiananmen Square In the morning, walk in the footsteps of emperors in the Forbidden City and wander through Tiananmen Square, the world's largest public plaza. Tiananmen Square Prepare to be overwhelmed by the sheer size of one of the world's largest public squares, measuring in at 440,000 square meters (over 109 acres). As you walk from the southernmost part of the square all the way down its length, you will pass several monuments, including the mausoleum that houses Chairman Mao's remains (exterior). The northern gate of the square features a portrait of the PRC's founding father and is also the gate through which you will enter the Forbidden City. Enter the Forbidden City and walk in the steps of emperors The Forbidden City was completed in 1420, and was home to 24 emperors, the last of which left Beijing in 1924. The entire imperial complex is reputed to have 9999 rooms, which at its peak housed up to 10,000 people, including the imperial family, 3000 eunuchs, as well as maids and concubines. Discover for yourself why the 170 acres were forbidden to common people as you stroll through what is arguably the best-preserved example of classical Chinese architecture in the world. Enjoy a tea ceremony at a tea store. Start a tour to Hutong in the afternoon. Rickshaw Ride & Hutong Tour The word "hutong" refers to the narrow network of lanes created by closely built quadrangular homes. Once the primary architectural feature of China's capital city, hutongs now make up only a small fraction of Beijing, having been replaced by high-rise buildings in recent years. Recapture the feeling of Beijing's past from the wooden seat of a traditional rickshaw and visit a local family's courtyard home along the way

20-Sep-25	Beijing, Temple of Heaven & The Great Wall of China Morning Excursion: Temple of Heaven & Great Wall of China Begin your day with a visit to the Temple of Heaven, a sacred site where ancient emperors prayed for bountiful harvests. Today, the surrounding area is a lively park where locals gather for morning exercises. Watch as they practice Tai Chi, fan dancing, or shuttlecock kicking, offering a glimpse into daily Chinese culture. Next, journey to the Great Wall of China at the Mutianyu section, renowned for its tranquility and stunning views. This iconic structure, the longest man-made construction in history, spans an incredible 50,000 kilometers of interconnected defense walls built over 2,000 years. At Mutianyu, a 2.5-kilometer stretch with 22 watchtowers invites you to explore its storied history. Enjoy a cable car ride to the top (included in the tour), offering breathtaking aerial views of this engineering marvel. Walk along the ancient path for over an hour, immersing yourself in the grandeur of one of the world's most awe-inspiring wonders. Return to your hotel in the afternoon, with the evening free for leisure and exploration at your own pace.
