17 Night Cruise + 2 Night Pre-Cruise Stay + 2 Night Post-Cruise Stay | Departing Heathrow 22nd May 2027 Begin your journey with a flight from London Heathrow to San Diego, arriving on the 22nd, where you'll transfer to your hotel for two nights pre-cruise. On the 24th, transfer to the port and embark the Azamara Quest for a seventeen-night voyage from the Pacific to the Caribbean. Sail down Mexico's coast to Cabo San Lucas, where the desert meets the sea, and on to the beaches and old town of Puerto Vallarta. Continue to Central America with calls at Puerto Quetzal in Guatemala, Acajutla in El Salvador and Puntarenas in Costa Rica, a gateway to rainforest and wildlife. The highlight is a full-day transit of the Panama Canal, one of the great engineering feats of the world. Then sail on to Cartagena, where an overnight stay lets you see its colourful colonial old town by day and by night. Aboard Azamara's intimate, boutique-style ship, you'll enjoy selected spirits, beers and wine, gratuities and speciality dining, with longer stays and late nights in port to make the most of every destination. Disembark in Miami on the 10th June and spend two nights in a hotel, with time to explore the Art Deco district of South Beach. Finally, transfer to the airport and fly home to London Heathrow, arriving on the 13th June.
